Planning learning and assessment using the CfE Experiences & Outcomes

Jane Renton
SALT Conference
3 November 2012
planning learning and assessment

1. skills?
2. topics?
3. learning activities?
4. assessment activities?
5. standards?
Listening

1a listening for information

2a listening during conversation
Talking

2a/3a
conversation including opinions & reasons

5a
role-play

6a/6b
presentation (group preparation)

4a asking for help during conversation

7a pronunciation & reading out loud
Reading

8a/9a reading texts with cultural content

10a reading for enjoyment

11a using dictionary

11b working out meaning
Writing

13a/13b writing including opinions & reasons

12a using references to support writing

14a using knowledge of language to support writing 21st century topics topics and activities: discussion

What topics are included in your courses?

What activities have your pupils been involved in over the last week?
assessment and standards

Don’t assess every Experience and Outcome!

Grouping Experiences and Outcomes

Education Scotland: assessment support materials coming very soon

Some draft materials to look at today assessment and standards: discussion

Have a look at the “key indicators of achievement” for writing at Second and Third Levels.

How helpful are they in “setting the standard”?
assessment and standards: discussion

Have a look at the examples of writing.

Cally’s letter: what were the success criteria? What advice would you give Cally re next steps?

What feedback would you give to the authors of the other pieces?