

Teachers of German in Scotland

- ✓ Open to all primary and secondary teachers who teach, or would like to teach, German in their school
- ✓ Network to collaborate and share practice, experiences, ideas...
- ✓ Meetings three times per year on MS Teams
- ✓ Launched German poster competition on 11/11/24 (start of German carnival season). Deadline for submissions – 28/2/25
- ✓ Join the mailing list by contacting SCILT at scilt@strath.ac.uk

Polish pilot for S5/S6 heritage learners

Target group: S5/S6 Polish heritage learners in Scotland

Duration: one academic year (September 2025 – April 2026)

Outcome: accreditation in Polish comparable to CEFR level B2, endorsed by the University of Warsaw

Free of charge for participating students/learners

For more information: contact SCILT at scilt@strath.ac.uk

Moving Forward with Languages

- Online conference for Higher and Advanced Higher candidates
- Workshops from universities from across the country
- Wed 11th of December
- Details in bulletin
- <https://tinyurl.com/353ucur7>

Chinese Exchange Teachers

- Available to any state school in Scotland
- Free of charge
- Able to teach up to 15 hours per week in any sector
- Supported by SCILT professional learning
- Focus on Mandarin language but also interdisciplinary projects
- School/LA provides mentor, pastoral support, and PVG
- Details in bulletin

Professional Learning Resources

- Imminent publication of new resource
- Focuses on anti-racist approaches to languages in primary and secondary settings
- Self-directed
- Reflective questions
- Inspired by two anti-racist educators working in West Lothian

Languages Week Scotland 2024

Our Multilingual Futures

- Week beginning 3rd of February
- Help us promote the week #ScotlandLovesLanguages
- SCILT website updated with ideas of how to participate
- Daily challenges will be published at the start of January
- Keep an eye on the SCILT socials