

British Council update – COALA meeting 24 October 2014

Information on British Council's school offer compiled below with some key bullet points. Some information on our programmes can be accessed online:

Language Assistants website (<http://www.britishcouncil.org/language-assistants/employ>) could be a great source of information for you about Language Assistants programme.

- Application process for modern language assistants will open in January.

eTwinning: <http://www.britishcouncil.org/etwinning.htm>

- New website launched
- Opportunities for linking with schools in local area; ie schools within the same clusters can link together to work on a joint project and if they wish include schools from another country
- Please contact Gary Shiells for more details: gary.shiells@britishcouncil.org

Connecting Classrooms' offer: <http://schoolsonline.britishcouncil.org/programmes-and-funding/linking-programmes-worldwide/connecting-classrooms>. It is worth noting that funding is available to establish partnerships with schools overseas through our Connecting Classrooms programme. The last application round closes on 30th January 2015.

Materials for schools:

Additionally, there is a pdf wall chart for schools to see which programmes may be best fitted to their needs:

British Council
Wallchart for Schools.

Further information about all programmes can be found at <http://schoolsonline.britishcouncil.org> where you can download free resources and project templates and sign up for regular updates and alerts if you haven't already done so.

You may be interested in our last year's publication on Sustainable International School Partnerships, which is available here:
