How to book	Payment will be by credit or debit card online or by invoicing the University. Please note if you require an invoice you will NOT have to go through the online booking system as this is for credit cards only. 1. Credit or debit card - go to http://onlineshop.strath.ac.uk/ Press the BOOK EVENT button and follow the instructions for online booking. Please note your place is not booked until you have made payment. Once you have registered for the conference, you will be sent a confirmation email with a link to the workshop choice sheet where you can fill out your 1st, 2nd and 3rd choices 2. Invoice from University - if you require an invoice you will need to download an Invoice Booking Form which can be found at the following link: SALT Invoice booking form. This should be returned to Claire McConnell as soon as possible. You will also need to download the Workshop Choice Sheet and return to Claire with your invoice booking form.
Choosing seminars	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Summaries of talks can be found on pages 6-8 to make your selection. ◆ Complete the workshop choice sheet as per instructions above. Each delegate can attend 3 workshops in total which will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis. ◆ Some seminar rooms can only accommodate a fixed number of delegates and so your first choice is not always guaranteed. ◆ Booking early is the best way of ensuring you get a place and your choices. ◆ If there are fewer than five people attending a seminar it is likely to be cancelled but warning will be given in advance so that alternative choices can be made. If a speaker is unable to attend due to unforeseen circumstances, we will contact delegates by phone and allocate them their second choice.
Fees and membership	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ SALT members: £55 Non members: £80 Students: £25 ◆ To qualify for the reduced fee for SALT members, you may select the 'member' category when booking and bring payment with your completed membership form on the day. Please note SALT will follow up all delegates to check for membership after the event. ◆ Alternatively you can contact the membership secretary of SALT directly. Please note that the conference office does not handle applications for SALT membership.
Cancellation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ 7 days' notice is required if you have to cancel your application. Please contact Claire McConnell in this instance. We are happy to accept another colleague in your place provided you advise us at registration or in advance. ◆ We regret that we are unable to reduce the conference fee if you cannot attend for the whole day.
Closing date	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Bookings should be made by Friday, 23 October at the latest. Applications received after this date cannot be guaranteed a place.

SESSION 1: 11.05–11.55
1.1	Paul Cassidy, Glasgow City Council How to learn a language - methodology and meeting the needs of all learners This presentation will take you through a number of models for language learning both national (including Gaelic Medium Education) and international and dispel the myth that language learning is reserved for a select few; languages are indeed open to all.
1.2	Joe Dale, Independent Language Consultant Producing and sharing personalised multimedia eBooks for iPads, Android and Windows tablets which promote creativity, collaboration and facilitate feedback Focusing on pedagogical principles and improving outcomes in language learning, Joe will demonstrate how easy it is to channel creativity and promote collaboration with the app Book Creator incorporating a range of multimedia ideas which are device agnostic.
1.3	Katrin Frahm and Lilo Börgmann, Goethe-Institut “Fit in Deutsch1”: comprehensive programme and certificate to implement further language skills Teaching materials, skill training and assessment tools are part of the internationally recognised certificate “Fit in Deutsch 1”. Our workshop will give information on this teaching and learning programme and discuss various forms of application to enhance classroom practice and enrich the school’s curriculum.
1.4	Hilary McColl, independent consultant and Susan Thomas, teacher and author Developing classroom language This workshop asks why we must encourage learners to use the foreign language for verbal interactions with teachers and classmates, and how we might set about achieving that aim. Practical examples, practice activities and games will be provided.
1.5	Colin Meikle, Larbert High School CfE Higher Spanish - opportunities and challenges This session will focus on the delivery of Higher Spanish looking specifically at teaching methodologies, developing language skills and assessment. It will allow participants to reflect on their experience of delivering Higher Spanish and share best practice.
1.6	Gary Shiells, British Council eTwinning - a community to enhance your international collaboration eTwinning is the European Community for schools, a space for 300,000 teachers to connect, collaborate, and create context for pupils. Join us to learn how to get the best out of eTwinning - learn about partner finding, project working and support.
1.7	William Turner, Glasgow City Council and Robert Kirk, Carrick Academy Engaging learners through transferable skills for learning, life and work; Modern Languages for Life and Work We will cover how integrating skills for learning, life and work can increase levels of learner engagement, achievement and attainment in language learning. We will also look at the SQA Modern Languages for Life and Work award to help embed skills for learning, life and work.

HOW TO GET TO THE CONFERENCE

Back

- Conference address: John Anderson Building
107 Rottenrow East,
Glasgow
G4 0NG
Use the above address for SATnav or Web streetfinders.
- Driving There are excellent road links to the university campus. Just follow the directions on the link below - and download the maps for simple route planning. Remember to leave plenty of time for your journey, as traffic can be heavy at times.
<http://www.strath.ac.uk/visiting/gettingtostrathclyde/driving/>
- Parking There are plenty of car parks throughout Glasgow city centre ranging in price depending on location and security. The National Car Park in Montrose Street is closest to the John Anderson Campus and the Buchanan Galleries multi-storey car park is just a 10 minute walk away.
- By train/bus There are regular links into Glasgow by train and coach. The city has two mainline rail stations - trains from the south arrive at Glasgow Central Station; Queen Street serves the north and east of Scotland. Buchanan Street is the major bus and coach station.
