

Linking Research and Practice in Education.

A day of seminars and workshops hosted by The Department of Education, University of York, to celebrate its 50th Anniversary.

Tuesday 2nd July, 2013

10 - 10:50 Professor Judy Sebba (University of Oxford). Linking Education Research & Practice.

"Linking MFL education research and practice"

11 - 11:30 Professor Rosamond Mitchell (University of Southampton). The Legacy of Eric Hawkins

11:30 - 12:00 Professor Suzanne Graham (University of Reading) & Professor Ernesto Macaro (University of Oxford). Eight principles of MFL teaching.

12:00-12:50 Dr Benedetta Bassetti (University of York) & Therese Comfort (CfBT). Culture and language learning.

12:50:14:00 Discussion and Lunch.

14:00-14:50 Christine Newbould (Hillview School, Kent) & Dr Florentina Taylor (University of York). Uptake of MFLs GCSE.

14:50 - 15:40 Dr Zoe Handley (University of York) & Jim McElwee (CfBT). Technology and language teaching.

15:40 - 16:00 Discussion

16:10 - 17:00 Event plenary feedback and discussion. Farewell.

There is no charge for the event, and lunch and refreshments will be provided.

Registration will open shortly. Places will be limited to 35.

<http://www.york.ac.uk/education/news-events/events/50/academic-conference/>