

15th June

Dear All,

After the great success of the last year Edinburgh University, in collaboration with the Consejería de Educación (Spanish Embassy Education Office), is going to launch the second Edinburgh Spanish Film Festival (ESFF) from the 2nd to the 10th of October 2015. We would be glad to share this experience with you. For this reason we are currently planning our programme, which also includes an animation film particularly suitable for primary school pupils (P6 and P7).

I am writing to you to know if your school will give to us its remarkable support by bringing children to see the following film on Tuesday 6th October, 10 am at the Filmhouse. The film we propose this year is:

Foosball: The unbeatables (Futbolín)

Amadeo lives in a small, faceless town. He works in a bar, plays table football better than anyone and is in love with Laura, but she doesn't know it. His simple routine falls to pieces when Grosso, a young local boy turned best football player in the world, returns determined to take revenge for the only game he has ever lost in his life. With the table football, the bar and even his soul in pieces, Amadeo discovers something magical: the players in his beloved table football speak, and plenty! Together they set out on an adventure-packed voyage to save Laura and the village; and to become a real team as they go. But does football have a place for miracles?

The film will be followed by a workshop at the ECA (Edinburgh School of Arts) – around 30 children for the workshop. Please note that this event in particular was SOLD OUT really soon last year.

The cost for the film only will be £3 per child (teachers free).

Email education@cmi-scotland.co.uk to book and we'll confirm the film tickets with them.

This is a great opportunity for the children to experience watching a film with subtitles and also to create their own film.
