

School of Modern Languages , University of St Andrews

Date: 6 June 2016

Time: 1000-1620

Venue: School 6/Q30 (registration and breaks) Look for #45 on the campus map (off North St)

Map: <https://www.st-andrews.ac.uk/media/university/maps/wwwmap.pdf>

Theme: Language Teaching: New Perspectives

Objectives:

- To explore new pedagogical perspectives in language learning
- To understand potential technological applications in language learning and teaching
- To reflect (individually and collectively as a School) on how we may apply these new perspectives and technological applications in our local practices and curriculum

Outline programme:

- 10.00 Registration, tea and cake
- 10.30 Introduction
- 10.45 Content and Language Integrated Learning: An Introduction.
Dr Charlotte Kemp, University of Edinburgh
- 11.30 Toward An Integrated Curriculum Design.
Dr Lorena Camacho, Princeton University
- 12.15 Lunch break
- 13.15 Intercomprehension: A Multilingual Perspective on Language Learning.
Dr Marion Dufour, King's College London
- 14.00 E-Learning.
Margaret Adamson, Centre for Academic, Professional and Organisational Development (CAPOD)
- 14.45 Tea and cake
- 15.15 Discussion / Forum:
Group reflection and discussion (15 minutes)
Group discussion with the speakers. (25 minutes)
- 16.00 Conclusion
- 16.15 Finish