

#SALT2019

Together Everyone Achieves More

Pssst have you heard the SALT conference is at the University of Stirling this year? We are delighted to be welcoming Laurence Findlay, Director of Education and Children's Services for Aberdeenshire Council as our Keynote Speaker and Steve Smith, author of 'The Language Teacher Toolkit' and 'Becoming an Outstanding Languages Teacher' who will be delivering two workshops at this year's conference! Find out more about Steve Smith on the next page!

The committee would also like to hear from you! Join us in our theme 'Together Everyone Achieves More' and take this opportunity to share what's happening in your languages classroom – primary, secondary or university. Click on the links below to put in a submission to lead a workshop or round table at #SALT19

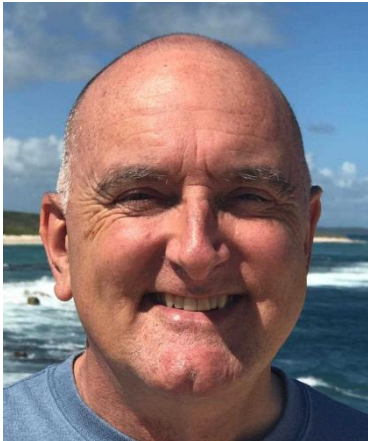

Workshop

www.bit.ly/saltconference19

Round Table

www.bit.ly/saltroundtable19

Steve Smith

Steve taught French for 33 years in schools in England and was Head of Modern Languages at Ripon Grammar School, North Yorkshire. He is now an author and blogger about language teaching, writes French resources for his site frenchteacher.net, presents for the AQA exam board in England and is a visiting Lead Subject Tutor (MFL PGCE) at the University of Buckingham. He is the author of the handbook Becoming an Outstanding Languages Teacher (Routledge) and co-author of The Language Teacher Toolkit (Amazon). His latest book, co-authored with Gianfranco Conti, is entitled Breaking the Sound Barrier: Teaching Language Learners How to Listen.