

What's on offer?

At our Science Specialist Confucius Classroom, RZSS Edinburgh Zoo:

P3-P4 It makes Panda Sense!

Available October – December 2019

A senses lesson which will compare human and giant panda senses and also teach the Mandarin names for the different body parts. Each school can book a maximum of 2 classes free of charge (maximum size per class 30 pupils with 1 adult per 7 children). Schools can book more than 2 classes with the first two free and the additional classes charged at Edinburgh Zoo's standard education rates. Limited number of free places, bookings taken on first come, first served basis.

P5-P7 China's animals & habitats

Available January – April 2020

Looking at China's different habitats through our amazing immersive space and finding out about some animals that live in them. This will include recognising some familiar Chinese characters within the animal and habitat names. Each school can book a maximum of 2 classes free of charge (maximum size per class 30 pupils with 1 adult per 7 children). Schools can book more than 2 classes with the first two free and the additional classes charged at Edinburgh Zoo's standard education rates. Limited number of free places, bookings taken on first come, first served basis. Note this session is not available until January 2020 but you can book now.
