

#ScotlandLovesLanguages:

A Celebration of Success

Tuesday, 25 February 2020
0900-1600hrs

Aimed at LA Development Officers and Language Leaders, to celebrate the 1+2 languages journey by sharing achievements and learning.

Join colleagues from across Scotland in an event that celebrates the creative and innovative work being undertaken by the languages community. The day will take place at the iconic Ramshorn Building located in Glasgow city centre, and will consist of interesting presentations, conversations and discussions with the aim of contributing the latest information on language learning and creating opportunities for you to share what is working well in your local context.
