

SCILT Digital Internship 2021-2022

Information Pack

The purpose of this internship is to raise the profile of language learning amongst 15-18 year olds through engagement on social media platforms and using other relevant technologies.

This post is open to applicants currently in S5 going into S6 for session 2021-22 only.

- This is a remote-working internship.
- This is an unpaid opportunity.
- Successful applicants must attend a training morning on Tuesday 15 June 2021. This will be held on Zoom. Those who cannot attend this day will not be allowed to proceed onto the programme.
- Applications are considered on a competitive basis. Not all candidates who submit an application will be interviewed.
- Those applicants who are successful will be invited to interview over Zoom.
- Only complete applications will be considered.

What this internship can offer you

A motivated intern will complete this internship with a valuable insight into the world of work and an enhanced CV. Interns will gain:

- Experience of working in a professional environment and an understanding of professional standards for online engagement.
- Access to an increased personal follower base and a raised social media profile.
- Support and training from digital professionals.
- Proven team-working and negotiation skills. Evidence of planning and time-management skills.
- Portfolio of social media output.
- Recommendation letter or volunteer appreciation certificate from SCILT.

What SCILT is looking for in your application

- You should carefully read the Job Description and Person Specification. Base your application around these requirements and make sure you provide evidence or examples to demonstrate how you meet the criteria.
- Please make use of the space for any further information that is relevant to the role and highlights additional skills and qualities you have.
- Ensure your application is well-presented, clear and concise and shows you in your best possible light.

Job Description

Successful candidates will work with a team of interns to:

- Establish social media channels to engage with 15-18 year olds.
- Create and publish relevant, original, high-quality content that relates to languages and language learning, to be shared through social media channels.
- Collaborate with other interns to generate ideas and content.
- Follow SCILT’s social media guidelines for creating and posting content and engaging with followers.
- Report to SCILT every week with a weekly plan for content.
- Review successes and failures regularly, based on evidence, and use this to inform future posts. Training on gathering and assessing evidence will be provided.
- Monitor conversations across social media platforms. Engage in dialogue and answer questions where appropriate.
- Work and communicate in a professional manner with the Communications Team at SCILT.

Interns are expected to commit two to four hours per week for one academic year to the project (Aug – June).
