

Moving forward with languages

Calling all S5 and S6 learners!

Are you studying ANY language at Higher or Advanced Higher? Then this series of multilingual online workshops is for you!

SCILT, together with languages departments from universities across Scotland, have teamed up to present this unique series of workshops. Get advice and tips on the languages that you are learning right now, and get a flavour of what it is like to study languages at university level.

10 September: The University of Strathclyde team will help you to use news articles to brush up your translation techniques.

1 October: Join the University of Stirling team who will guide you through critical analysis of film – with a twist!

29 October: Let the University of Edinburgh team help you unravel the mysteries of grammar!

12 November: Want to expand your vocabulary? Then this workshop, led by the University of Glasgow team, is one for you.

26 November: The University of Aberdeen team will help you to develop your skills of critical analysis by working with images and build confidence in expressing your ideas in another language.

10 December: The University of Dundee will show you how to become a confident speaker by developing your confidence through presenting in another language.

Registrations open in August 2022. You can attend all six workshops, or simply choose the ones that will help you most to move forward with languages!
