

THE FUTURE OF FRENCH EN ÉCOSSE

Ensemble vers un avenir durable

Monday 24 June 2024

Welcome: 10h00	Stéphane Pailler, Consul général de France à Édimbourg et Glasgow , Prof David Murphy, Professor of French, University of Strathclyde , Sheena Bell, SCILT, Scotland's National Centre for Languages
Roundtable 10h15	French in Scotland: where are we and where are we going? Moderator: Cédric Moreau, University of Strathclyde	Louise Glen, Senior Education Officer, Languages and International Education Dr Fiona Barclay, Senior Lecturer, University of Stirling Prof Lorna Milne, President of the Franco-Scottish Society Catriona Sharp, Education Support Officer for Modern Languages and Gaelic Medium Education (GME)
Morning workshops 11h15-12h00	Theme 1: Strategy and Support	Theme 2: Culture and Curriculum
(Choose one)	The place of French in Scottish state schools	La Fresque du Climat: A Fusion of French, Science and Climate Action at the University of Strathclyde and St Anne's Primary School
12h00	LUNCH
13h00	Le marché - networking and stalls
Afternoon workshops:	Theme 1: Strategy and Support	Theme 2: Culture and Curriculum
Slot 1: 13h30 (Choose one)	Digital Education, Innovation, and Bridging the Gaps: the French Digital Library Project	Speak Up! The value of debating in modern languages
Slot 2: 14h15 (Choose one)	Cultural Collaboration and Potential Partnerships	Remembering Empire - delivering IDL global citizenship through French
Plenary 15h00	Fhiona Mackay, Director, SCILT

